

Year 3

In writing, Y3 have been writing apology notes inspired by Bill's New Frock. They have been working hard on using conjunctions.

In art they have been drawing shops on Golbourne Road. We have used water colours to paint them and next week we will be bringing out the details with black fine liner pens.

LT: To write an apology note from Bill to Rohan in Bill's New Frock by Anne Fine

You must:

- Write in first person
- Include conjunctions, e.g. but, however, because, instead, so, when
- Use different sentence starters
- Include the reasons why you are sorry

You might want to:

- Use an exclamation mark
- Include a P.S. at the end of the note

Dear Rohan,

I am sorry for punching you in the shoulder. But I was really frustrated and when I did want to read the comic from Bill.

sp x 3 definitely definitely definitely definitely

Dear Rohan,

I apologise for punching you and starting a fight. But you have to understand I felt funny because all day people had thought I was a female. I ^{simple} ~~apologise~~ ^{had} ~~enough~~. I really did not want to read the ^T ~~juve~~ comic. However fighting was ~~definitely~~ ^{definitely} ~~not~~ the answer. I didn't mean to hurt you but I may had temper was building ^{up}. Next time please think about how you treat female.

From Bill

P.S. let's share the comic next time ^{especially} (especially if it's a thriller!).
