

This half-term, Year 2 have been reading The Bog Baby by Jeanne Willis.

Appearance
They have sharp tails ^b but they are loving and harmless.
They are shiny and a bit slimy.
They have tiny wings that can't fly.

Amazing Bog Babies
Bog Babies are mysterious and cute blue animals that live in calm places. Let's keep reading about Bog Babies.

Amazing Bog Babies
Bog Babies are soft and blue creatures. Keep reading to find out more.
Appearance
Bog Babies are about soft and blue (a).
They have boggly eyes. Also they have paws tiny.

We have written non-chronological reports about bog babies with information about their appearance, habitat and diet!

Habitat
Bog Babies live in damp and muddy places. They love trees because they can explore.